2015 1st INTENSIVE TRAINING PROGRAM

For ASIA UNIVERSITY SPORT LEADERS

Dec. 29th, 2015 ~ Jan. 5th, 2016

Location

Dankook University-Cheonan,
South Korea

Host Organization

AUSF

Supervising Institute

KUSB, Dankook University

Dear members of

AUSF and Asian collegiate sports personnels:

AUSF is currently planning the first 'Intensive Training Program for Asia University Sport Leaders,' and Dankook University is honored to take part as a supervising institute.

Recently, sports have been globalized and Asian sports are not an exception. Particularly, in the time when the expansion of western sports over Asia rapidly proceeds, combined development through communication and harmony among Asian sport people is timely necessary in order to take rank with the people in the globe. In this regard, what Asian sport people need is continuous self-improvement to catch up with the global trend and eventually prepare for the global changes.

Members of AUSF and Asian collegiate sports personnels!

With a nearly 70-year tradition of educating citizens and developing scholars under the college's spirit, 'Truth & Sacrifice,' I believe that Dankook University can contribute to the endeavor of the Asian collegiate sports people in ways. For the '2015 Intensive Training Program for Asia University Sport Leaders' especially, Dankook University is putting forth its full effort to provide a world-class educational opportunity that can contribute to international-level sporting event and advancement of Asian collegiate sports. In winter 2015, AUSF and Dankook University-Cheonan will hold the first ever training program for Asian global sports leaders under the theme of 'Encouraging Asians communication and harmony through the education designed for collegiate sport people.' I wish to see you in Cheonan, South Korea.

Thank you very much.
